

Reading together
from the start is one of the most important things you can do to help your child succeed in school and life. Join the whole state in sharing
DO UNTO OTTERS
written by
LAURIE KELLER.

Support for the Michigan Reads! program is provided by the Federal Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) via the Institute of Museum and Library Services through the Library of Michigan, part of the Michigan Department of Education.
Additional support provided by Macmillan Publishers and the Library of Michigan Foundation.

ART © DO UNTO OTTERS BY LAURIE KELLER

Read to Your Child to Help Them Succeed

Have Fun!—Choose books you enjoy and have fun reading them. Your child will learn from your attitude.

Read it Again and Again—Children enjoy repetition and it builds word recall so read your child's favorite book over and over.

Be a Reading Role Model—Let your child see you reading.

Read Together Every Day—Even a few minutes a day helps. Make it a comfortable time to be close.

Read Out Loud—Reading to your child increases attention span, improves listening skills and develops vocabulary.

Have Books Available—Encourage your child's interest by having plenty of books. You can go to your public library for more.

Visit your local public library for further tips, suggestions and more books!

For more information visit www.michigan.gov/michiganreads